PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Armistice Day Holiday is traditionally observed in remembrance of the cessation of hostilities for World War I; and

WHEREAS, the Armistices which have ended the other great conflicts in which the United States has been engaged are often times slighted because of the November 11 tradition; and

WHEREAS, the brave and gallant veterans of all wars should be remembered and honored; and

WHEREAS, the American fighting man has proven himself to be worthy of special recognition in that American boys have proven to be the best soldiers in the world;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby declare November 11, 1952, as

and urge all South Dakotans to observe Armistice Day in a spirit of thankfulness for the American fighting man who has preserved the freedom we enjoy in our United States. I do further urge all South Dakotans to display the flag of our country in the usual public places and attend the programs and public gatherings which will be held in observance of Armistice Day. I do particularly request all South Dakotans to join the peoples of the world in a prayer for peace so that the Korean war may be concluded and the final Armistice entered in the records of our nation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 30th day of September, 1952.
